

Originally when I spent extra money to have our phone unlisted I believed unwanted solicitation would stop. I was mistaken. I signed up on the NJ Do Not Call list to stop those unwanted calls, especially at dinnertime. I believe by reversing this policy solicitors are given more rights by taking away our right to privacy